

YMCA CAMP FULLER CODE OF CONDUCT

Camp Fuller strives to promote and encourage the YMCA character values of Honesty, Responsibility, Caring and Respect. The basic guidelines at camp are:

- Be respectful of other campers and staff.
- Be honest and forthcoming in your interactions with campers and staff.
- Be responsible with Camp Fuller's equipment and property.
- Be caring towards yourself and others.

Campers must agree to abide by the following rules inclusive in this Code of Conduct.

- I will be respectful to everyone and will not swear, use derogatory language, bully or harass others.
- I will be responsible for helping clean my cabin and division.
- I will respect camp property and not deface it with graffiti.
- I will respect the property of others by asking to share and I will not steal.
- I will respect curfew, and I understand that being out of my division after curfew may result in immediate dismissal.
- I will bring no weapons to camp, including pocketknives.
- I will not use alcohol, drugs, or tobacco products at camp.
- I will not bring electronics devices that have internet access or display any video images (including I-Pods with video playing capabilities) as well as cell phones.

I will do my best to make this a good experience for myself and my fellow campers. I understand that failure to live up to this agreement may result in my dismissal from camp (without a refund).

BUDDY REQUEST

Camp provides an opportunity to make new friends. Therefore, we discourage requests that specific campers be placed together. However, if you feel strongly that two campers be placed together, we will strive to honor that request. Requests must be reciprocal. See our Family Information packet for more details.
